Dear Mr. & Mrs. Breitenbach:

I wanted to take this opportunity to congratulate you both on being honored by the Maryland B&B Association for the highest customer evaluations of all member inns for 2004. I understand that the Maryland Association's meeting was held in November, and you were honored with this wonderful achievement for the third year in a row. You must be very proud of your accomplishments and with the wonderful service that you provide the tourist of Washington County.

I want to personally thank you for your commitment to providing this outstanding service to your guests and for doing your part in making Historic Washington County a wonderful place to visit. By providing such warm hospitality, you are inviting these folks to return to our community and visit with you again at The Jacob Rohrbach Inn.

Again, I offer my congratulations on this highest honor of the Maryland Bed & Breakfast Association. Keep up the wonderful work!

Sincerely,
